Keeping You Moving Toward Success

Reliable transportation is vital for work, healthcare, and daily responsibilities, yet many suburban Cook County residents face financial strain when unexpected car repairs arise.

The CEDA Auto Repair Assistance Program offers up to $2,500 per household to help with critical repairs, ensuring safe and reliable transportation so individuals can stay on track with their goals and daily lives.

Program Benefits

- Financial Assistance: Up to $2,500 per household to cover essential vehicle repairs, including brakes, engine issues, diagnostics, and routine maintenance.
- Employment Stability: Helping residents maintain their jobs by addressing transportation challenges.
- Improved Accessibility: Ensures families can reach healthcare providers, schools, and other essential destinations.
- Case Management Support: Guidance to connect households with additional resources and services as needed.

Our program is designed to address your unique auto repair needs with flexible funding and ongoing case management to ensure that everyone has access to safe and reliable transportation.
